PHELPS ON FREE TRADE.

HE DOES NOT BELIEVE ENGLAND WOULD BE BENEFITED.

The English Realize That if We Should Adopt Such a Measure We Could, By Our Vast Resources, Cunning and Ingenuity Compete With Any Nation.

New Haven, Conn., May 21.—The Hon. Edward J. Phelps, the United States minister to England, arrived in New Haven at 2 p. m. Thursday and was driven immediately to the residence of Professor Arthur M. Wheeler, whose guest he will be for the remainder of the week. The following conversation took place between Mr. Phelps and a reporter:

"What is the general sentiment in England, Mr. Phelps, in regard to the Mills bill?"

"Well, the number of people who have read it in its entirety are of course very few. What has been cabled to England has been but a synopsis, yet the drift of the bill is well understood to be a general reduction of taxes on certain imports to this country."

"It used to be the belief," continued Mr. Phelps, "among the people of England that the adoption by America of free trade would be of much benefit to England, but that belief is not universally shared at present. England now realizes that if America should adopt the doctrine of free trade and throw open its markets to the world it could, by reason of its own vast resources and by the ingenuity and cunning of its own people, compete with any nation. England, I say, realizes this. The United States could sell products to an enormous extent upon English soil, and reap from such sales and such commerce vast benefits. On the other hand the United States would have nothing to lose in the long run by opening its markets to England for we would lose nothing by such competition."

"Is the thought that England would lose more than she would gain by the adoption of free trade that of parliamentarians, or is it public opinion?"

AN EXPLOSION OF GAS

Demolishes a Bank and Injures Several People, at St. Cloud, Minnesota.

ST. CLOUD, Minn., May 21.—This city was startled at 7:30 Friday evening by a terrific explosion of gas in the basement of the First National bank building. The structure was completely demolished the front being hurled across the street, and shattering buildings on the opposite side. The streets in the vicinity were crowded with people, and many were injured, the following seriously:

T. Keller, head and face terribly cut.

James Hahn, skull fractured.

A. L. Huber, face, neck and head lacerated.

F. Tolman, hand broken, head and face cut.

J. Whitney, side cut open by a piece of plate glass, which has not yet been extracted.

Hahn and Whitney are not expected to recover.

The building caught fire and burned.

Seven Business Blocks Burned.

PORTLAND, Ore., May 21.—Fire broke out Thursday night in Palouse City, W. T., and destroyed a large portion of the business blocks. Nothing could be done to check the progress of the flames. Little of the contents of the houses was saved. Seven blocks in all were burned. The total loss is $250,000; insurance $75,000.

Arkansas Court Room Affray.

CLARKVILLE, Ark., May 21.—Friday Judge George Cunningham and Capt. A. P. McKinnon, one of the most prominent attorneys in the state, became involved in a serious difficulty. Cunningham was presiding over the Johnson county circuit court. His rulings were unsatisfactory to McKinnon, who took exception to them. Finally the judge fined him $50. Words ensued and McKinnon attacked the judge with a knife and stabbed him several times about the face, head and neck, inflicting dangerous wounds. The spectators separated them. Excitement in the town over the affair is very high and friends of the parties will likely become involved.

Shot His Mother-in-Law.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., May 21.—Yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Jasper Bates shot his mother-in-law, Ann Smith, through the right hand and right leg, inflicting dangerous wounds. His wife had just given birth to a child, and he went to the trunk and got a revolver and was approaching the bed with it when his mother-in-law grabbed the weapon and the shooting followed. Bates is in jail on a charge of shooting with intent to kill.

No Prohibitionists There.

BOSTON, May 21.—There will sail from this port this week a vessel carrying 1,400 packages of New England rum. This is the largest cargo of the kind ever shipped from here to the African coast. During the year there 8,188 packages sent out, estimated to contain 500,934,416 drinks.

TWO MORE WHIPPINGS.

The Latest Raid of the Indiana White Caps—Bloodshed Feared.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., May 21.—Mr. Frank Millican, who arrived here Friday evening from Grandview, reports that the famous White Caps, of Crawford county, Indiana, have extended their work into Spencer county. He states that about 11 o'clock Wednesday night a party of twelve or fifteen called at the house of a man named Stephen Wardel, living with his mother, a few miles from Newtonville.

They rapped at his door, and when he opened the door they pulled him out and dragged him to a tree about two hundred yards distant, to which they tied him, and administered fifty lashes. They then notified him to go to work and take better care of his mother, or they would visit him again with a double penalty. Wardel says the men were all well masked and that their voices sounded strange to him.

Several nights ago two of them went to the house of Mr. Smith Hogan, living in Grandview, and told him their buggy had broken down, and that they wanted him to help them repair it, so that they could proceed. He started with them, but after going a short distance through a small strip of woods ten more of the gang jumped from behind the trees, and binding him to a tree, gave him five lashes each, sixty in all. They then told him that the punishment was for wife-beating, of which it is said he was guilty. He was left lashed to the tree, and was released by his wife.

They then proceeded down to the river, where there were seven family boats tied to the bank, six of which they cut loose and shoved out into the river, and commanded them not to make another landing in Spencer county. They then left an order for the remaining boat to move on with twenty-four hours. The regulators left notice with a number of parties that they would have to leave the county within twenty-four hours, or they would visit them with a supply of switches. The citizens of the community are in a high state of excitement over the matter, and fear that it will end in bloodshed.

Muldoon and Professor Miller to Wrestle.

BALTIMORE, May 21.—William Muldoon, of New York, and Professor William Miller have signed an agreement for a mixed wrestling and boxing match to take place in Baltimore in a month from now for $250 a side.

Sporting Notes.

Winners at Brooklyn Friday were: Ban Clochi, Exile, Peril, Specialty, Joe Lee and Lottery.

Daniel Needham and John McCracken, who were about to fight in a ring, near Lo-Lansport, Ind., were both knocked out in one round by the sheriff.

The majority of the race horses now at Louisville will go to Latonia. The St. Louis meeting begins at the same time as the one there, but owners prefer the superior accommodations at Latonia.

The Louisville race course was like a lake, Friday, and the rain came down unceasingly, but the races were all run, nevertheless. Orderly men easily in the first, with Emma Johnson second. Terra Cotta won after a struggle from Hypaspia in the second. Wheeler T galloped home a winner as he pleased in the third race. Spectator and Lithbert were the other winners.

Fatal Walking Match.

NEW YORK, May 21.—Lewis Brandt, fifteen years old, and his young brothers and chums arranged a walking match in the house of Lewis' father, on Broome street. They walked in a circle through two rooms and a hallway. They had been three times past the starting point and the race was getting exciting, when Lewis suddenly stopped and put his hand to his head. The others raced on and two of them got around again to Lewis just in time to see him drop to the floor. He had died from a rupture of a blood vessel of the heart in consequence of excitement and too vigorous exertion.

Mrs. Parnell Home Again.

NEW YORK, May 21.—Mrs. Delia Stewart Parnell, mother of Charles Stewart Parnell, returned home yesterday on the White Star steamship Germanic. Mrs. Parnell made a visit to Ireland in the fall of last year and has remained there since, spending her time and recruiting her health, which has been very poorly lately, in the house in the County Wicklow, Ireland, where several of her children were born. Mrs. Parnell will take up her residence at the Stewart family house, Bordentown, N. J., for the present.

Death of an Inventor.

NEW YORK, May 21.—George M. Phelps, the well known inventor, died at his home in Brooklyn Friday night of paralysis at the age of sixty-nine. He was a native of Watervliet, N. Y. He was the inventor of the stock indicator, of an electro-printing, and many other devices used in telegraphy.

Shot and Killed His Wife.

ANGELICA, N. Y., May 21.—Charles Gilbert, of this place, shot and killed his wife this morning during a quarrel. Gilbert has not been captured yet. He was released from prison a short time ago, having been sent up for burglary. The parties were colored.

A SECOND ABE LINCOLN.

THE SHACKLES OF BRAZILIAN SLAVES BROKEN BY DOM PEDRO.

After Many Years He Succeeds in Abolishing the Infamous Traffic in Human Beings in the Great Empire—The Masters to Receive No Compensation.

NEW YORK, May 21.—A dispatch by way of Europe announced some days ago the total abolition of slavery in the empire of Brazil by act of parliament. There was no information given in relation to the conditions under which this important change was accomplished. No communication concerning it was received by the representative of Brazil in Washington, or at the Brazilian consulate in this city. A reporter has learned, however, from Baron Thomson, of Rio Janeiro, now residing in this city, all the circumstances connected with the recent decree.

Senor Dom Heitor Basos Cordeiro, chief of the police department of Rio Janeiro, is at present a guest of Baron Thomson, having arrived in New York a few days ago to study the police system of the United States, and to spend some time in travel. From him the baron had received authentic information concerning the recent history of the emancipation movement in Brazil.

"The passage of the law referred to," he said, "was anticipated for a long time. For years past the emperor, Dom Pedro, had set his mind on effecting the abolition of slavery in the empire."

"As far back as 1871 a law was passed for the gradual emancipation of the vast slave population, but it was badly administered, and in many places not enforced at all. A more stringent law was passed in 1885, where all persons born in slavery should be free at the age of twenty-one, and all slaves over sixty years of age should be entitled to liberty."

"To facilitate the operation of this law, a deduction of 6 per cent. for each year was made in the value of each slave, and a tax of 5 per cent. on all imports and internal taxes was imposed for the government emancipation fund. Voluntary societies for buying up slaves sprang up in almost every city, and one province freed all its slaves by paying the masters the government valuation. Still, the emperor was not satisfied with the slowness of this progress, and through his influence, a bill for the immediate emancipation of the slaves was introduced into parliament at each session."

"On leaving Rio Janeiro for his European tour last July he passed the helm of affairs to his daughter Isabella, the princess regent, with the injunction that she would leave no means unexercised to bring about the passage of the emancipation bill. The bill was presented and the ministry, refusing to pass it, resigned. A new ministry was formed and the bill was passed by both houses."

"It had been the intention of the parliament on the advent of the new ministry to pass the bill on the day of the emperor's return to Rio Janeiro as a compliment to his majesty, but after more serious consideration they concluded to act at one and not leave so important a matter to chance."

"A condition of the new law requires that all the emancipated negroes now on the coffee plantations must remain there until the next coffee crop is gathered in, but in the meantime they are to receive a small rate of wages from their former owners. The freedmen, during this period, shall not be locked up in their quarters as formerly, and may, outside of the working hours, go where they please within certain limits. The former owners receive no compensation, the government holding that they have been sufficiently compensated already by the fruits of the unpaid labor of the slaves in the past."

"By the recent emancipation law, nearly 1,500,000 slaves are freed from servitude. Outside of the plantations slavery in Brazil was not an abused institution, the slaves in private houses being almost invariably regarded and treated as members of the family."

"In recognition of this enlightened measure, removing the last stain of slavery from the new world, Pope Leo XIII has sent the golden rose to the princess regent of Brazil."

IT RAINED BUGS.

A Strange Phenomenon Which Has Happened Several Times in Georgia.

ATLANTA, Ga., May 21.—A few nights ago the inhabitants of Ninety-Six and those of the surrounding country for several miles were aroused from sleep. It was about 10 o'clock that a loud roaring was heard, which the people believed was an approaching tornado. A short while later the noise became more distinct, and the air was filled with a moving black mass that fell in showers of bugs, covering the ground in many places an inch thick. Large pine fires were built, in which many of the bugs were destroyed. Every night since at exactly the same hour there is a similar occurrence. The people now prepare for them by building fires and putting vessels of water to destroy them as they fall.

Professor B. Vondahlen, a scientist of note, has visited the place so as to witness this phenomena. He has examined the bug, and asserts that he has never found it before in this country. It is a species that is peculiar to the southern part of Africa, and a few years ago rained down upon the people of that section every night for six months in the year. The bug is about the size of the June bug, black and rough, with long, pointed gray wings. It is harmless, and dies soon after touching the ground.

Again Postponed.

CHICAGO, May 21.—Chairman Midgley announces that the meeting of the committee on uniform classification, which was to have been held in New York May 23, must again be postponed. The reason is that some of the members will be in attendance on the meeting of the Transcontinental association, at San Francisco, on the date named.

price paid being, it is said, $23,000. The work of removing the historic structure to Chicago, where it will be used as a museum, will begin at once.

Side tracks will be run alongside the building, which will be taken down piecemeal and carefully numbered, so that it may be set up in Chicago exactly as it stands here. Some feeling has been expressed in this city against permitting the removal of the old landmark, but the general sentiment is that Mr. Gray had bought and paid for the building, no obstacles should be placed in the way of his disposing of it as he sees fit.

PRIVATE DALZELL.

While Seeing the Town He is Robbed of a Watch and Chain in Kansas City.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 21.—Private Dalzell, who has a National reputation, reports at police headquarters that has been relieved of his watch and pocketbook, containing $30, by some unknown person. He arrived Thursday evening from Fort Scott, Kan., and started out to see the town. When he awoke in the morning he was in the house run by a man named Collier, on Sixth street, near Bluff. His watch and money were missing. Collier is an ex-member of the Salvation Army.

BUSINESS.

How Things Are Coming According to Dan's Review.

NEW YORK, May 21.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: In spite of the unbending and unconquerable vitality of the country, periods of temporary hesitation or reaction are inevitable, and one has apparently been reached. But for the movement of foreign capital this way to pay for bonds and stocks a heavy outgo of gold would be required to meet the excess of imports over exports. Success in borrowing foreign money to pay for imports makes the market for securities strong and money here is superabundant. But meanwhile collections at an increasing number of points in the interior are slow; the caution of buyers checks production in important industries, and crop prospects are not flattering.

For the time the tendency is toward a decrease in production. Later reports as to what have but slightly modified impressions given by the bureau in its May statement. Present indications do not warrant expectation of a yield exceeding 400,000,000 bushels, which, with surplus carried over, would not permit exports much exceeding 100,000,000 bushels, or 53,000,000 bushels less than last year's.

An important change in many directions is the shrinkage in house building, which appears at many points 30 to 50 per cent. below last year's record. The decrease in railroad building affects other branches of industry. The weakness in iron has been recognized in a reduction of the contract price for Thomas No. 1 pig to $18, which is expected to cause a number of furnaces to suspend operations. No change is noted in rails, but bar iron is quoted a shade lower. The competition of southern furnaces in a time of shrinkage demand is now important.

The dry goods market has not materially changed. Restricted and hard to mouth dealings are the rule. It is complained that the retail trade in some parts of the country is backward, as is natural when crops and crop prospects are unsatisfactory. Dress goods are quiet, but some worsted mills about Philadelphia are expected to close for a time, and prices of wool average a shade lower than May 1. The caution of buyers is still felt in the boot and shoe trade, which is not entirely satisfactory, though it is said that prices are a little stiffer. The output of anthracite coal was 69,786 tons smaller in April than last year; but the stocks on hand increased during the month 267,605 tons, indicating decreased consumption.

The exchanges at all clearing houses were about 2 per cent. smaller last week than for the same week in 1887. Failures for the week: United States, 163; Canada, 23. Total 189, compared with 209 last week, and 180 same week last year.

NEW YORK, May 21.—Frederick Marsden, the playwright, forty-years old, of No. 318 West One Hundred and Twenty-Sixth street, was found dead in his room this morning, having committed suicide during the night by turning on the gas.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,

MONDAY EVEN'G, MAY 21, 1888.

The Right Ring.

The platform adopted by the Democrats of Minnesota has the right ring to it. It is clean metal, and goes straight to the heart of the great question now before the American people. They do not mince words and use ambiguous phrases, but speak their sentiments in plain language. It is such sound Democratic doctrine we quote most of it in full. It follows, and it will repay a careful reading:

The Democrats of Minnesota, in harmony with the Democracy of the Union, declare that the longer continuance of taxes levied for the conduct of a war which ended nearly a quarter of a century ago is a needless and unjustifiable burden upon the people of this country. To the already accumulated $150,000,000 surplus lying unused and useless in the Treasury there is being added under our existing revenue laws an increasing surplus of $80,000,000 each year. This money is not needed for any legitimate purposes of Government. It is withdrawn from circulation: it plays no part in the business transactions of the people; it is a constant temptation, a standing inducement for schemes of plunder and corrupt extravagance.

We demand as a right that the people shall be at once and forever relieved from this unnecessary and oppressive burden. Superfluous taxation is tyranny. The time has come for a thorough revision and a radical reduction of the existing revenue taxes. We insist that this work be at once begun and speedily consummated without further evasion or delay, and that in the doing of it the following principles shall be adhered to as the true basis of genuine revenue reform, viz:

1. That taxation is not a public blessing nor an element of National prosperity; that while sufficient revenue should at all times be collected for the support of an economical Government in the discharge of its legitimate functions for the payment of the public debt and liberal pensions to deserving veterans of the Union army not one dollar of superfluous tax should be imposed for the purpose of enhancing the prices of commodities consumed by the people and as a tribute to the private business of a favored few.
2. That whatever taxation it may be necessary to retain for Government purposes should be imposed, as far as practicable, upon articles of luxury and indulgence, which mainly minister to the enjoyment of the rich and the habits of the dissolute.
3. That the taxes should be greatly reduced, and when practicable altogether abolished upon all articles and materials in such general use as to be rightly classed as necessities for our people, which are essential to their health, comfort and prosperity, which enter into their domestic life, their industrial pursuits and their personal happiness.

It is to be hoped "blackberry winter" is at an end for this year, and that the "paw-paw frost" will prove a very light one.

ROBERTSON County will vote on the liquor question the 2nd of June. The proposed law is similar to the one in Fleming.

THE Minnesota Democrats have declared for free salt, free coal, free wool, free lumber, free sugar, free iron and free steel. They want all raw materials to be free. They believe the tariff needs revision and needs it badly. And they are right; it does.

REPUBLICANS concede on every hand that Cleveland has given the country an honest and clean administration—an administration of which any party might well feel proud. The people recognize this, which accounts for the President's great popularity.

THE present administration has restored millions and millions of acres of land to the public domain—land that Republicans in past voted away to grasping monopolies. This one act of the Democratic party should win for it the lasting gratitude and warm support of the working men of the country.

THE Republicans are harping a good deal on the "solid South" these times, and Senator Voorhees, "the Tall Sycamore of the Wabash," has told them what it means. "It means," said he, "that she is solid against crime, solid against debauchery, and solid against political corruption, and above all she is solid for Grover Cleveland and the Democratic party."

THE Maysville Republican has again dropped into the tariff debate. Will it please tell the country how it is that Chicago butchers receive $18.50 per week wages, while New York butchers receive but $8 per week? It is a poor tariff that can not protect the well-paid butchers of Chicago from the pauper butchers of New York.—Louisville Times.

Our esteemed contemporary professes to be a good hand at "figgers" and we shall await its answer to the question propounded.

THE general debate on the Mills Tariff bill ended last Saturday, Representative Reed, of Maine, and Speaker Carlisle making the closing speeches. The distinguished statesman from Kentucky was enthusiastically received, and his speech is an unanswerable argument in favor of the pending measure. Under the five-minute rule the bill will be taken up section by section, at the close of this week, unless the proposition of the Democrats to vote on it at once is accepted by the Republicans, which is doubtful.

RAILROAD COMMISSIONERS.

Spalding, Fleming and Hager to Constitute the New Board.

Governor Buckner has appointed the following gentlemen to be Railroad Commissioners, subject to future advice and consent of the Senate, and to take effect from date: Ignatius A. Spalding, of Union County, for the First Superior Court District; W. B. Fleming, of Louisville, for the Second district, and John F. Hager, of Ashland, for the Third District.

These appointments leave but one of the old board, Mr. Spalding, and retire Judge Thompson, of Lebanon, and J. T. Young of Bath County. The late Legislature failed to enact a new or change the old law, and the board as now constituted will continue to operate under the old law.

The appointment from the Louisville District was tendered Colonel E. Polk Johnson, of the Courier-Journal, some time ago, but he declined it.

Mr. Spalding is a brilliant lawyer of Morganfield, Colonel Hager is a prominent attorney of Ashland, while Judge Fleming, of Louisville, is also a lawyer of prominence.

It is to be hoped Mr. Blaine's health will permit his acceptance of the Republican nomination for the Presidency. The Democrats want to show the country how easily they can down the Plumed Knight with Cleveland.

LIFE insurance is especially valuable for professional men whose family's income is cut off at their death. Dr. Agnew, who recently died in N. Y., left for his family a policy for $25,000 in the Equitable. Jos. F. BRODRICK, Agent.

THE loss by the burning of the wharf boat at Moscow, a few days ago, is placed at $3,000; no insurance. Considerable freight was destroyed. No one slept on the boat, and the origin of the fire is unknown, but it is thought to have caught from the torch-basket of the steamer Boone.

JOHN McELDOWNEY and W. W. Castleman, two Louisville drummers, were caught on the trestle across the creek bottom by a construction train Saturday, and saved themselves by perching on the end of the heavy cross timbers until the train passed.

THE next meeting of the State Homeopathic Medical Association will be held at Louisville in May, 1889. The following are the officers for the ensuing year, viz: C. P. Meredith, Eminence, President; H. C. Kehoe, Cynthia, Vice President; A. J. Jones, Carrollton, Secretary; J. A. Vansant, Mt. Sterling, Treasurer; Howard Crutcher, Louisville, Corresponding Secretary.

THE Superior Court in affirming the case of Wheeler against Bramel from Robertson County says:

In this action by appellant to recover land purchased by him at tax sale, the court, having properly adjudged that he acquired no title to the land by his purchase, did not err in failing to give him a lien on the land, as no such lien was claimed. On the contrary, it is proved that appellee before commencement of the action offered to reimburse appellant all he had possessed on account of the taxes, but he refused to accept it, preferring to sue for the land.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Notes and Comments by County Superintendent L. W. Galbraith.

NO. 13—MAYS LICK.

Census report, 126; number on roll, 34; average attendance, 20.

It is a pleasant task to report progress in a school district, especially when so marked and gratifying as in Mayslick. The present school, as those preceding it, was taught in rented quarters. This want of proper school buildings has been one of the greatest needs that beset the patrons. But the present trustees, Wm. E. Myall, David Raymond and Andrew Fox, have taken up the matter in a business-like manner, and the result is, a new school building containing two handsome rooms, at a cost of about two thousand dollars. I will not undertake a minute description, as the house is not yet completed, but will say that it will, in the most complimentary manner, evidence the energy and good judgment of the board of trustees. As any other good work it will show for itself.

The school was taught by Miss Effie Wadell, with her uniform success in pleasing her patrons. She uses the written methods in arithmetic, grammar and spelling. The discipline of the school was very good. The chairman of the board of trustees, Wm. E. Myall, was very attentive to the needs of the school, and Mr. Fox visited it, but owing to illness Mr. Raymond was absent during the session.

Now with the new school building and marked interest manifested in school work, I am looking forward to greater and broader success in this district, and I confidently hope to see all of the educational forces united in one common cause, till this public school becomes, as it should, the people's college.

Stylish Parasols.

[Philadelphia Times.]

The parasol now blossoms out in full dress glory. It is chosen like the bonnet, to accord with the costume. Many are bright and flaky with lace, fluttering with ribbons and jubilant with ornamental handles. Yet some of the most fashionable women carry the plainest parasols.

Loss by Strikes.

[Exchange.]

Bradstreet's figures that the total duration of the strikes of 1887 in this country was over 10,000,000 days, which estimated at $1.50 per day, would make a total loss in wages of $15,000,000. The wage losses through successful strikes were $2,400,000; through unsuccessful strikes, $6,800,000, and from unsettled strikes December 31, $4,300,000. In other words, about one-twelfth of the total annual industrial wages were sacrificed in 1887 by nearly one-tenth of the total number of industrial employees.

DR. PHILLIPS went up to Manchester yesterday afternoon, on his tri-cycle hand-car, and amputated one of the big toes of a colored man, who has been employed on the railroad. The fellow was unfortunate enough to have one of his feet badly crushed Saturday evening by a rail falling on it, rendering amputation of the toe necessary.

"Who will win?" is the question now agitating the youthful heads and hearts of the pupils of the Visitation Academy, where there is a lively competition for gold medals in the advanced classes of composition, history and christian doctrine; also, for a gold pen offered for penmanship. The handsome medal to be awarded for ancient history and classical literature has been presented by an old pupil of the Academy.

"CHILDREN'S DAY."

Its Origin and Design—Interesting Services at M. E. Church, South.

The General conference of the M. E. Church, South, held at Richmond, Va., in May, 1886, ordered that "the third Sunday in May be set apart as 'Children's Day,' to be observed throughout the church with appropriate services, and on that day a collection be taken up for the benefit of needy Sunday schools; ten per cent of the money collected to be forwarded to the General conference Sunday School Committee, Nashville, Tenn., and be distributed by said committee in the same manner and under the same regulations as the interest accruing from the 'Centennial Sunday School Aid Fund.'" The interest from the Centennial Sunday School Aid Fund, together with 10 per cent of the amount collected on Children's Day, is devoted to the help of needy Sunday schools in mission conferences and foreign mission fields.

Ninety per cent of the collections taken up are reported by the pastor to the conference, and placed in the hands of the conference Sunday School Board, to be applied to the aid of needy Sunday schools within the bounds of the contributing conferences.

The day was generally observed last year, and its success was gratifying.

A large crowd was present yesterday morning at the M. E. Church, South, to participate in the interesting services.

The main room was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The altar-railing and altar supported a profusion of blooming plants, and evergreens, while a tiny bird cage to which was attached a bouquet of fresh flowers was suspended from each chandelier. The motto, "He Cares for Children," was displayed in letters of evergreen on the wall back of the pulpit, while on either side stars of gas jets were to be seen. The room had been darkened, and the gas burned brightly from the chandeliers, the scene presented being a lovely one.

The services were conducted by Mr. John Duley, the faithful superintendent of the Sunday school. The programme was similar to that observed by the church throughout the land, and was as follows, except that in one or two instances other hymns were substituted for those given: Opening hymn—"Vanderbilt"—Congregation.

Prayer—By the Pastor, Rev. D. A. Beardsley. Song—"Bringing in the Sheaves"—Congregation. Responsive Reading. Recitation—Shackelford. Song—"Go Gather the Golden Grain"—Congregation. Questions and Answers. Song—"The Kingdom Coming"—Congregation. Address—By the Pastor, Rev. D. A. Beardsley. Collection. Doxology—By the Congregation. Benediction—By the Pastor.

The collections amounted to $10. At the close of the prayer, the rite of baptism was administered to the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Greenwood.

In the afternoon at 3 o'clock the day was observed at Mitchell's Chapel, Chester, the services being conducted by Mr. Jas. F. Robinson, superintendent of the Sunday school, who has labored earnestly and faithfully for the past year or two to build up the Sunday school and at that point.

A programme similar to the above was carried out. The collections amounted to about $3. Sacred solos sung by Mrs. R. T. Cummings and Miss Walz added much to make the services pleasant and enjoyable.

A JOINT stock company has been organized at Winchester with a capital of $15,000, and has closed a contract, through Maurice King, with Stuart & Altenburg, agents of the Edison Incandescent Light Company, for a 600-light electric light plant. Mr. King was in town this morning, and has been trying for some time to have a plant added to one of the gas works in this city.

OWENS & BARKLEY have just received several sizes of lawn mowers. Will be sold at lower prices than ever before. Also large lot of fishing reels, rods, lines, hooks, minnow seines, seines from twelve to seventy-five feet long, at wholesale and retail. Stock of barbed and annealed fence wire and fence staples. All will be sold at the lowest prices. Corn planters—"Eagle," "Buckeye" and "Victor."

THE Louisville Southern Railroad is to be formally opened for traffic on the 30th of this month. The Courier-Journal says: "The contract for the fireworks has been closed, and it will be the grandest display ever seen in that section of the country. There will be a continuous display on the return trip, from Harrodsburg to Louisville, supplemented by the deep-voiced salutes of Battery A. under the direction of Captain Bly. The train, of sixty or seventy cars, will be beautifully decorated and illuminated, lighting brilliantly the whole journey with bombs, rockets and candles."

MUST SERVE HIS SENTENCE.

The Cornelison Habeas Corpus Case at Louisville Decided Adversely To the Prisoner.

John J. Cornelison, the assailant of the lamented Judge Reid, will have to serve his sentence. His friends have been persistent and untiring in their efforts to secure his release, and five habeas corpus writs have been heard. The trial of the last was concluded at Louisville Saturday, before Judge Toney of the Law and Equity Court, the decision being adverse to the prisoner.

The Court held that the question involved was merely as to whether the prisoner is technically in legal custody; and argued that the writ was in no sense a writ of error, and can only be used prior to conviction. Further, that after conviction, the only remedy left is to carry the case to a higher court, and when that court has settled the law and the facts, there is no further appeal. That to allow the writ of habeas corpus meant the release of the prisoner, which would result in rendering useless the decision of the Court of Appeals, that decides and settles the law of the land. The first ground alleged by the petition that he (the prisoner) is held contrary to law must therefore be declared insufficient. The second ground, that the release of Cornelison by 'Squire Stoffer should have granted the prisoner his liberty forever, is wholly unparalleled for its anomalous nature in all history of legal proceedings, for a Justice of the Peace has overruled the Court of Appeals. Judge Toney also contended that the removal of the prisoner from Mt. Sterling to the county jail in Louisville merely changed the place of confinement, and is authorized by the statute. The third ground was therefore declared insufficient. Finally, in summing up the issues, the Judge announced as his opinion that it was manifest that the only course for the Court to pursue was to remand the prisoner to the custody of the Jailor.

A special says after the decision Cornelison, though bitterly disappointed, gave no outward signs of it, and arose, shook hands with all whom he knew, and marched away to jail with Turnkey Kelley. Cornelison has served fourteen months' imprisonment, and has twenty-two weary ones before his term will have expired. He will probably be kept in the jail at Louisville.

Stock, Field and Farm.

The recent frost didn't damage the fruit much in Kenton County.

A scarcity of tobacco plants is reported in the Mt. Carmel neighborhood.

In Kentucky $100 is said to be invested in trotters to $1 in thoroughbred racers.

About 3,000 horses have trotted a mile in 2:30 or better in the last forty-five years.

Army worms are destroying whole fields of grain in Henry County, says the Local.

The late rain has greatly benefited the growing wheat and other crops. It was badly needed.

It is said Hanover will try and break the mile record so long held by Ten Broeck—1:39.

Since last Christmas dogs have killed thirty-four sheep for Dr. R. Wells, of Robertson County.

Hog cholera of a virulent form prevails at Findlay, O., not less than 1,000 of the animals having died since May 1.

In the vicinity of Frankfort, the injury to crops by the late frosts is said to be more severe than at first reported.

Peter S. Anderson, of North Middletown, formerly of Dover, has 175,000 pounds of the best tobacco in the blue grass region.

It is reported the outlook for a large tobacco crop in Owen County is very discouraging. There will not be more than half a crop put out owing to scarcity of plants.

It is conceded now that the American trotting horse is the best in the world. Years ago superiority was conceded to English trotting horses, and before that to Arabian. We imported from both and improved on both.

Information comes from the tobacco-growing counties of Western North Carolina that two thirds or more of the young plants were killed by recent frosts. Vegetables and wheat were greatly damaged at numerous points in the mountains.

Waller Sharp, of Sharpsburg, bought for Leggett & Meyers during the past season 1,300,000 pounds of tobacco at an average of 18 cents per pound. He has made a large amount of money on the weed in the last few years, and has now over 240,000 pounds of his own, of good average.

Mrs. H. H. KENDALL, of Flemingsburg, has received $2,000 from the Ancient Order of United Workmen, insurance on the life of her late husband, Marshal Kendall.

Gilmore's Band.

The great Gilmore and his grand band will give two concerts next Saturday—May 25—under the auspices of the Kentucky Chautauqua Assembly, at the opening of new pavilion in Woodland Park, Lexington. Sixty musicians, thirteen soloists headed by Liberati, the cornet virtuoso. Admission, 50, 75 and $1. An excursion may be run from this city, if enough people wish to go.

Free Turnpikes.

The City Council at a called meeting Saturday afternoon refused to submit to a vote of the people the question of donating $1,200 to aid in making the Hill City pike a free road. All members were present except Mr. Robinson and a lively discussion was had. The vote stood seven to seven and the proposition was lost.

THE Mason County Building and Saving Association books are now open for subscriptions to the eighth series stock. For any information, call on M. C. Russell, Secretary, or R. K. Hoeflich, Treasurer.

MOVEMENTS OF THE CZAR.

HE IS PREPARING FOR ACTION AT SEVERAL POINTS

In Poland and Along the German and Afghan Frontiers—King Milan's Throne in Danger—Emperor Frederick Continues to Improve—Other Foreign News.

LONDON, May 21.—While the English government and the English people are engaged in discussing the question of British defense, the czar is quite obviously studying the question of Russian offense whereof the people of Austria, Bulgaria, Persia, Tuskestan and Afghanistan, as well as the Briton and the Turk, would do well to take timely cognizance.

Having well nigh perfected his military arrangements on the Austro-Russian frontier Russia is now with feverish haste, but in perfect completeness of detail, pushing her warlike preparations in Poland and along the German frontier, for purposes which it has not as yet pleased the imperial autocrat to divulge. Simultaneously with the expulsion of Jews in large numbers troops are arriving at Warsaw and other military depots in Poland. Railways are being strengthened and their equipment largely augmented and immense quantities of forage and other supplies are being contracted for with the stipulation of immediate delivery.

While these movements are going on in Europe, Russia is no less active on the frontiers of Afghanistan or Persia, where she has never for a moment abandoned her positions, and the massing of troops, extension of railways and concentration of military supplies are being carried on with a ceaseless regularity and vigor that could not well be exceeded in the event of actual warfare. Manifestly something more important than mere location of troops for permanent garrison duty is about to take place, but such absolute secrecy is preserved with regard to the character of the movements to be made and the objects sought that, it is doubtful whether even the high military officers charged with the work in hand are cognizant of their sovereign's aims.

That some of the movements being made are mere feints to distract attention from the actual point of attack there is no doubt, but which frontier most needs watching no one seems willing even to conjecture, lest he shall find his judgment sadly at fault. It is argued, however, from the fact that Russian agents have brought the people of Bulgaria and Serbia into a ripe state of insubordination and contempt for their respective governments that the czar's government is about to show how lightly he regards the military power of Austria by occupying a considerable portion of the Balkan territory.

Plan to Dethrone the King of Serbia.

BELGRADE, May 21.—The police have seized documents revealing the widespread nature of the recently thwarted conspiracy. It was intended by the plotters to arrest King Milan and the leading public men of the capital and install Prince Karagevitch on the throne, and also to promote a revolt in Bosnia. The conspiracy is attributed to Russian influence.

KING MILAN.

ence. Between the Serbian and Bulgarian people there is no trouble save a state rivalry which in Serbia is opposed to the consolidation of Bulgaria and Roumelia. Russian influence is greater in Serbia than Bulgaria now, and the object of Russian intrigue is to make of Serbia an active ally just as she is sure Greece will be, should a Russian army invade the Balkans. To this end she aims at placing the pretender Karagevitch, son of Black George, as his name implies, on the throne. This would soon be effected were it that Austria sustains King Milan.

The Vatican is Firm.

ROME, May 21.—The manifesto of the Parnellite members of parliament on the condemnation of the plan of the campaign has caused considerable surprise at the Vatican. The attitude of the bishops and clergy of Ireland has caused it to be supposed that the Catholic members of the Home Rule party would also submit. The attitude of the Parnellites, however, will not cause the Vatican to modify even in the smallest degree its determination to combat everything in Home Rule agitation that, like the plan of campaign and boycotting, is opposed to morality and religion. The protest of the Parnellite members is already accepted by the Vatican as affording indisputable evidence of the necessity of combating the revolutionary and subversive tendency of the Nationalist agitation. The Vatican has received further reports from the United States showing that the pope's condemnation of the plan of campaign has been everywhere received in that country with marked respect.

Strained Relations.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 21.—The Russian government, learning of an intention on the part of Austria to remove Count Wolkenstein-Trostburg, the Austrian ambassador, and send him to London, and to leave the embassy here in the care of a charge d'affaires, informed Count Kalnoky, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, that such a step would be followed by the recall of Prince Lobanoff-Kostovski, the Russian ambassador at Vienna. Count Kalnoky thereupon intimated to the Russian government that Count Wolkenstein-Trostburg would remain at his present post.

Frederick Wonderfully Improved.

BERLIN, May 21.—Emperor Frederick remained in the park from 5 till 7:30 o'clock Friday evening, dividing the time between resting in the tent and driving about in the pony carriage. The evening consultation of the doctors was held in the tent. On leaving the park the emperor walked up the steps of the Schloss, supporting himself by the balustrade. He was also able to visit the chapel. If the improvement of the past few days continues, he will go to Potsdam, after Prince Henry's wedding, and to Hamburg early in July.

Foreign Notes.

The German government is trying to influence the leading banking houses against a Russian loan.

It is stated that the sultan of Morocco has made a successful attack upon the Berber rebels from Mequinez.

It is expected that a Russian loan of 500,000,000 roubles will be emitted in the autumn by a French syndicate.

Fire Chief Mercer and Fire Engineer Moore, of Youngstown, each claims authority over the Youngtown, O., department. The laddies don't know which is boss, and the entire town is liable to burn before they decide the question.

The shanty on Blackberry Fork, Kentucky, where the Hatfield-McCoy massacre took place, is haunted by real ghosts, real old Kentucky ghosts, who appear in volleys of musketry and send clammy, cold winds through the whiskers of the unfrightened observers.

Twelve years ago, Mr. Moorman, a wealthy farmer living near London, O., was operated on for tumor in the ear. Cotton was put in the ear at the time, and he was told to return and have it taken out. He failed to do so and lost his hearing. The cotton has been removed and his hearing has been restored.

John D. Anderson, president of the Baptist female college, Brownsville, Tex., has resigned. He was caught hugging a young lady pupil of beautiful facial architecture, whose name was Pierce. Nobody would have objected to her piercing his heart, but for the fact that he was married. Miss Pierce has gone home to Mississippi on a permanent vacation and Anderson has departed for Florida.

The Hoosier capital is noted for her ability to take in strangers, but at present she is sitting up nights and soaking her head to devise some way of entertaining 10,000 fellows who won't take drink. But when the guests depart saying enthusiastically that they "never had a dryer time in their lives," the web-footed capitalist is not expected to shed any moist weeps. That is Prohibition volapuk for a wild, old spree.

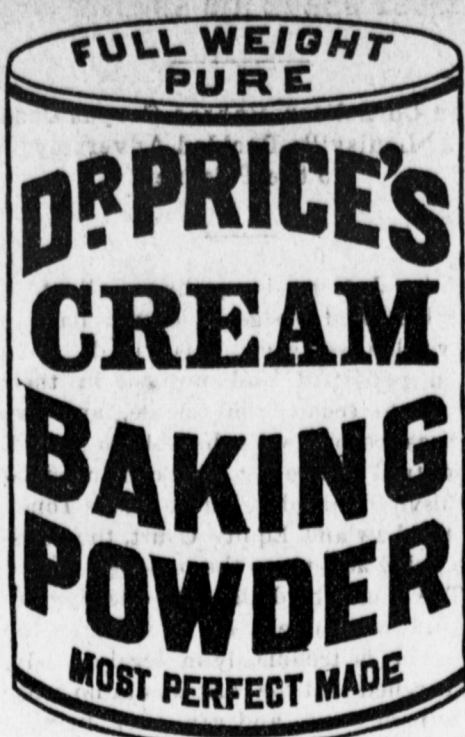

BURLINGTON ENGINEERS.

The Report That Many of Them Are to Be Discharged Denied.

MASON CITY, Iowa, May 21.—Notices are posted in all the division round houses of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railway that all engineers unable to run engines without the aid of a pilot will be dismissed from the service. This, it is said, will take off about 60 per cent. of the new engineers.

The Report Denied.

CHICAGO, May 21.—Referring to a special from Mason City, Iowa, published in many morning papers here, that the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy would soon discharge all engineers unable to run without the aid of pilots, a prominent official of that road said to a representative of the United Press that there was no truth whatever in the report. He said that the engineers now working on the road had been employed for three months and were familiar enough with their runs to work without pilots.
